About Cuisine for Healing

Our Mission

Cuisine for Healing is a nonprofit organization committed to promoting the healing power of food by cooking organic, delicious, nutritious meals made readily available to people combating life-threatening diseases, and offering educational resources to empower individuals to make food choices that benefit their well-being and long-term health.

Our Why

A young client who had a double mastectomy recently called after receiving her first bag of meals to tell us “When I sat down to eat this beautiful meal...I just could not stop crying. It is a gift of life for me and so much help to my family.”

Every day in our community, thousands of people get diagnosed with a life-threatening illness. As their emotional state is rocked, the next few weeks are turbulent, moving in slow motion. Figuring out financial aspects and insurance on top of balancing the already hectic lives we all lead, with the added stress of uncertainty and the unknown. As treatment advances, it can be hard to have strength, time and money to prepare healthy nourishing meals. This is a reality lived by so many. Healthy food is such an important part in the healing process, and yet it is one that gets left on the back burner because of so many other obligations and complications associated with illness.

Cuisine for Healing is dedicated to ensuring these community members come home to delicious, organic, immune-boosting meals when they get home from the hospital.

Our Community Food Program

Because life threatening illness knows no income boundaries, our program has two components that are equally important to our mission:

Medically Referred Clients

Most of these clients are receiving medical treatment, many receive disability or SSI, and have lost insurance.

- Receive up to 10 CFH*Certified immune-boosting meals for 6 to 18 weeks at no charge, delivered in Tarrant County for free by our volunteers.
- Prequalified at 150% of the federal poverty index or below by Social Workers, Case Managers, and Cancer Navigators.

Purchasing Clients

Nearly 80% of our purchasing clients are too sick to shop, cook, or prepare food for themselves.

- Are able to purchase the same *CFH Certified meals for anyone in search of healthy meals or facing a health crisis.
- All proceeds support our Medically Referred Clients

Sponsorship Opportunities

With all three events being different, we have tailored our 2024 Sponsorship Levels to help you find the best fit for you and your company.
